

Enroll in LifeLock Proactive Identity Theft Protection

You have a home security system that alerts you if someone tries to rob your house. To be protected, you need an alarm system for your identity. When LifeLock detects suspicious activity within their network[†], they notify members before the damage is done. LifeLock detection is different than traditional credit monitoring and offers a comprehensive set of features to protect against identity theft. As the industry leader, LifeLock provides proactive protection.

How to enroll:

1. Enroll through your employer during benefits enrollment.
2. Provide the name, Social Security number, date of birth, address, email and phone number for you and each dependent you wish to enroll. ^{†††}
3. Your LifeLock coverage will begin upon your benefit effective date.
4. You will receive a welcome email from LifeLock with instructions on how to take full advantage of your LifeLock membership.

When a threat is detected,
LifeLock notifies members
by phone, text or email. ^{†††}
